

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

11:00 – 11:10 a.m.

- Sierra Club Room America
“Energy and Climate in T-TIP”
- Americans for Financial Reform Room Iowa
“Financial Regulation and US - EU Trade Negotiations”
- U.S. Dairy Export Council & National Milk Producers Federation, Room Clover
“T-TIP Expectations: View of America’s Largest Dairy Cooperative”
- Alliance of Automobile Manufactures, American Automotive Policy Council,
Automobile Manufacturers’ Association (ACEA) Room Missouri
“Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership, Automotive Regulatory Convergence”

11:13 – 11:23 a.m.

- Rainforest Relief Room America
“Is a Sustainable Timber Trade Possible?”
- U.S. Chamber of Commerce Room Iowa
“The importance of concluding a comprehensive and ambitious agreement”
- Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy Room Clover
“T-TIP and Local Food Systems”
- Friends of the Earth Room Missouri
“Regulatory Incoherence”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

11:26 – 11:36 a.m.

- National Caucus of Environmental Legislators Room America
“Is T-TIP on a collision course with meaningful action on climate change?”
- Americans Insurance Association Room Iowa
“T-TIP and Property-Casualty Insurance”
- National Bison Association Room Clover
“EU Customers' Desire for Non-Hormone Treated Meat is a Natural for American Bison Producers”
- CropLife America Room Missouri
“Pesticide regulation and the use of precaution by the US and EU”

11:39 – 11:49 a.m.

- Natural Resources Defense Council Room America
- National Council of Architectural Registration Boards Room Iowa
“International Mobility of Architects”
- Break Room Clover
- Center for Effective Government Room Missouri
“The Ineffective United States Chemical Regulation Regime: Implications for Regulatory Coherence”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

11:52 a.m. – 12:02 p.m.

- World Animal Protection Room America
“Animal Welfare in T-TIP”
- Columbia Center on Sustainable Investment Room Iowa
“ISDS in the T-TIP: How it can affect the development, interpretation and application of domestic law”
- Break Room Clover
- National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) Room Missouri
“Manufacturing Priorities of the T-TIP”

12:05 – 12:15 p.m.

- Global Justice for Animals and the Environment Room America
“Farmed Animal Welfare Standards & TTIP: Compassion and Safety Are Not Trade Irritants!”
- European Services Forum Room Iowa
“The View of ESF on T-TIP”
- Blue Diamond Growers Room Clover
“The EU is one of the Largest Import Markets in the World for US Almonds”
- Humane Society International Room Missouri
“Chemical and Pharmaceutical Safety Testing”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

12:18 – 12:28 p.m.

- National Farmers Union Room America
“Balanced Trade and Currency Manipulation”
- Public Citizen’s Global Trade Watch Room Iowa
“ISDS and the Rule of Law”
- American Meat Institute Room Clover
“Transatlantic Meat Trade -- Opportunities and Constraints”
- Plasma Protein Therapeutic Association Room Missouri
“The Plasma Protein Therapeutics Industry and Transatlantic Trade”

12:31 – 12:41 p.m.

- American Federation of Teachers Room America
“Privatization and Community Voice in Education”
- U.S. Council for International Business Room Iowa
“Keep the I in TTIP! Strong investment provisions are essential pillars for growth and jobs”
- Consortium for Common Food Names Room Clover
“Geographical Indications Wielded as Barriers to Trade”
- International Center for Technology Assessment Room Missouri
“Consumers Want Safe Nanomaterials in Commerce”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

12:44 – 12:54 p.m.

- Communication Workers of America
“Protecting Local Customer Service Jobs” Room America
- Illinois House of Representatives
“A State Legislators Perspective: Investor-State Arbitration in Free Trade Agreements - Due Process for Commerce & the Environment?” Room Iowa
- Transatlantic Business Council
“Framework Conditions for Innovation in the T-TIP” Room Clover
- Representative of German Industry and Trade
“German Business Priorities for Standards and Regulatory Cooperation in T-TIP” Room Missouri

12:57 – 1:07 p.m.

- Teamsters
“Teamsters are Troubled by the T-TIP Trajectory” Room America
- Brooklyn For Peace
“Risk Management and Secure Supply Chains” Room Iowa
- Association of Research Libraries
“Copyright Limitations and Exceptions” Room Clover
- Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids
“Protecting Tobacco Control Policies in Trade Agreements” Room Missouri

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

1:10 – 1:20 p.m.

- AFL-CIO Room America
“Trade and Wages”
- Semiconductor Industry Association Room Iowa
“ICT Growth Via Trade in Products with Cryptographic Capabilities”
- American Free Trade Association Room Clover
“IP-based Non-Tariff Barriers: Enhance Anti-Counterfeiting measures, Limit Anti-Distribution Measures”
- Distilled Spirits Council of America Room Missouri
“U.S. distilled spirits industry priorities in the T-TIP negotiations”

1:23 - 1:33 p.m.

- International Association of Machinists Room America
“A T-TIP that reflects a 21st century trade agreement”
- Center for Digital Democracy Room Iowa
“The Failure of the EU/US Safe Harbor to Protect EU User Data: Recent Research and Regulatory Action”
- Knowledge Ecology International Room Clover
“IP Chapter Language: Do not push for extreme in copyright or patent rights at odds with U.S. and EU interests”
- European Alcohol Policy Alliance (EUROCARE) Room Missouri
“T-TIP and alcohol related harm in European countries”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

1:36 – 1:46 p.m.

- Owners' Rights Initiative (ORI) & ASCDI
"Scaling the Walls of Fortress Europe" Room America
- Telecommunications Industry Association
"T-TIP Priorities for the Telecom Sector" Room Iowa
- Computer & Communications Industry Association
"IT Industry Concerns With Intellectual Property In T-TIP" Room Clover
- Amway
"The US Dietary Supplements Industry: Benefits of T-TIP" Room Missouri

1:49 – 1:59 p.m.

- Express Association of America
"T-TIP Goals - An Express Industry Perspective" Room America
- Information Technology Industry Council
"T-TIP and ICT: Mutual Challenges, Mutual Benefits" Room Iowa
- Universities Allied for Essential Medicines
"Intellectual property and Regulatory Cohesion: prioritizing public health and public interests" Room Clover
- Competitive Enterprise Institute
"Thorny Regulatory Issues in T-TIP" Room Missouri

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

2:02 - 2:12 p.m.

- American Association of Exporters and Importers Room America
“A Blueprint to Trust”
- Alliance for Healthcare Competitiveness Room Iowa
“The Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership: Increasing Opportunities for the Healthcare Sector; Improving Health Outcomes”
- Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers Association Room Clover
“T-TIP Ensuring Market Access and Patient Equity Across the European Union”
- National Association of Beverage Importers Room Missouri
“Beer, Wine and Spirits exports to the US market”

2:15 - 2:25 p.m.

- American Apparel & Footwear Association Room America
“Apparel & Footwear in the T-TIP - Finding Common Ground”
- Princeton Center for Information Technology Policy; Elon University School of Law;
Stanford Law School Center for Internet and Society Room Iowa
“Temporal Transparency and the T-TIP”
- International Federation of Medical Students’ Associations Room Clover
“Health Implications of the T-TIP”

STAKEHOLDER PRESENTATION SCHEDULE (BY TIME)

Wednesday, October 1, 2014

11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

National 4-H Youth Conference Center
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, Maryland 20815

2:28- 2:38 p.m.

- United States Fashion Industry Association Room America
“What Defines a Successful TTIP for Apparel: Recommendations from AAFA, EBCA and USFIA”
- Alliance for Democracy Room Iowa
“T-TIP and Democracy”
- American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Room Clover
“Impact of Trade Provisions on Government Administered Health Programs”