

State COVID-Operation Snapshot for Maine

On August 5, Governor Mills extended Maine's state of civil emergency due to COVID-19 through September 3. It comes as Maine is in Stage 3 of the Restarting Maine's Economy Plan and has reopened most of its economy.

On July 8, Governor Mills ordered large retail businesses, restaurants, bars, tasting rooms, and lodging establishments in Maine's more populous cities and coastal counties were ordered to enforce the State's face covering requirement.
